

PSALM 4

Hear when I call, just God ever there; You have delivered me, give ear to my prayer.

2 How long O men, will His glory despise? Loving what's empty, and seeking for lies? (Pause)

3 And know that the Lord, separates safe the kind; when I call He will hear, and keep me in mind.

4 Quiver in awe, and go not astray; quietly speak, to your heart where you lay. (Pause)

5 Slay the offering, by doing what's right; and make the Lord, your trust's delight.

6 Many may say, "Who will see grace?" Lord shine upon us, the light of Your face.

7 For You've made my heart, so happy and pleased; more than when grain, and wine are increased.

8 I will lay down in peace, and in You find my rest; for only in You Lord, I dwell safe and blessed.
