

PSALM 131

My heart is never haughty Lord, nor do I lift my eyes; nor walk in things too high for me, (so pride will not arise).

- 2 I compose myself in quiet, in equity so still; just as a child whose been weaned, away from mother's milk.
- 3 Let Israel trust in the Lord, let Him be our true hope; from now until the end of time, keep Him within our scope.
