

PSALM 136

1 Lift your hands and praise the Lord, with thankful heart so pure; His mercy and His kindness, will forever more endure.

- 2 Give thanks unto the God of gods, His graciousness adjure; His mercy and His kindness, will forever more endure.
- 3 Give thanks unto the Lord of lords, His worship now ensure; His mercy and His kindness, will forever more endure.
- 4 The only One Who does great deeds, His healing wonders cure; His mercy and His kindness, will forever more endure.
- 5 His wisdom made the heavens, in its brilliant blue azure; His mercy and His kindness, will forever more endure.
- 6 He overlaid the earth, upon the ocean's shore; His mercy and His kindness, will forever more endure.
- 7 Who made great lights in heaven, that do shine forever more; His mercy and His kindness, will forever more endure.
- 8 The sun that rules throughout the day, its brilliance ever pure; His mercy and His kindness, will forever more endure.
- 9 The moon and stars that rule at night, their faithfulness secure; His mercy and His kindness, will forever more endure.
- 10 Egypt's firstborn smitten, so they never did mature; His mercy and His kindness, will forever more endure.
- 11 Israel was rescued, their numbers never fewer; His mercy and His kindness, will forever more endure.
- 12 With mighty hand and outstretched arm, He set a great detour; His mercy and His kindness, will forever more endure.
- 13 He split the Red Sea into portions, like a might hewer; His mercy and His kindness, will forever more endure.
- 14 Yet Israel passed through its midst, a supernatural tour; His mercy and His kindness, will forever more endure.
- 15 But Pharaoh and his army died, cast forth as manure; His mercy and His kindness, will forever more endure.
- 16 He led His people through the desert, safe and sound and sure; His mercy and His kindness, will forever more endure.
- 17 Kings were stricken when they tried, to trick and fight and lure; His mercy and His kindness, will forever more endure.
- 18 Famous kings caught in their prime, who never would mature; His mercy and His kindness, will forever more endure.
- 19 Sihon of the Amorites, made destitute and poor; His mercy and His kindness, will forever more endure.

- 20 Og the King of great Bashan, lost all he had in store; His mercy and His kindness, will forever more endure.
- 21 He made their land a heritage, for His heirs to secure; His mercy and His kindness, will forever more endure.
- 22 Israel His servant, did a promise then procure; His mercy and His kindness, will forever more endure.
- 23 He remembered when we needed, health to be insured; His mercy and His kindness, will forever more endure.
- 24 Redeeming us from tribulation, safely to endure; His mercy and His kindness, will forever more endure.
- 25 He gave us food from heaven, that the world might not allure; His mercy and His kindness, will forever more endure.
- 26 Give thanks unto the God of heaven, no one ever truer; His mercy and His kindness, will forever more endure.