

PSALM 130

From the depths I call to You, O Lord, from deep inside; in my need to You O Lord, it is to You I've cried.

- 2 Hearken to my voice O Lord, and let Your ears attend; to my great entreaty, the heartfelt prayers I send.
- 3 If the Lord should mark out, or watch perversity; then who of all the people, could stand up before Thee?
- 4 But there is forgiveness, and pardon Lord with You; so we hold in reverence, and awe the things You do.
- 5 Expectantly upon the Lord, my soul does wait and pine; for His Word I tarry, and keep His truth in mind.
- 6 My soul is watching for the Lord, as watchmen for the dawn; holding guard at break of day, observing till it comes.
- 7 Let Israel hope in the Lord, and patiently await; with the Lord is kindness, and deliverance so great.
